

MOUNTAIN ADVOCATE.

Entered as Second-Class Matter Friday, February 19th, 1904 at the Postoffice at Barbourville, Knox County, Ky., under Act of Congress of March 3rd, 1879.
MOTTO:—LIVE FOR OUR FRIENDS—DO THE GREATEST AMOUNT OF GOOD WE CAN TO THE LARGEST NUMBER OF PEOPLE.

Terms: $1. Per Year in Advance.

BARBOURVILLE, KENTUCKY, FRIDAY, OCTOBER 20, 1905.

Second Year. Vol. 2. No. 36.

Chicago Capitalists Interested and Propose to Finance Our New Rail Road on Certain Conditions.

IF WE DISPLAY PROPER INTEREST OUR NEW RAILROAD IS NOW ASSURED.

The circulation of the Mountain Advocate in the city of Chicago containing articles from time to time touching upon the proposed new railroad and commenting upon the rich resources it would open up to the markets of the world has reached the hands of capitalists in that city, who sent a representative here last week to look over the ground and make some investigation.

After thoroughly investigating our plans and proposed route, he returned to Chicago and laid them before his associates there; and after hearing his report they authorized him to submit a report to us, which in substance is as follows:

If we will raise $100,000 in the six counties along the line of the proposed railroad by subscription and collect 25 per cent. of it and turn it over to them, they will give us a guarantee bond to the effect that they will faithfully begin construction of our railroad for us within an agreed period of time and complete same as rapidly as possible, and in the event they should fail to do this our money will be returned to us, and we will have the stock to the amount we have subscribed in the road.

They will make all surveys and all that they would expect of us would be to secure the right-of-way and pay 25 per cent. of our $100,000 capital stock to guarantee our good faith.

From the letter referred to it is clear that the eyes of the world are turned this way, and if we really want this road it is in our power to secure it.

Knox county has already subscribed about $12,000 of the necessary $100,000, and we feel confident that the remainder of her share can be secured without much effort if the counties of Whitley, Clay, Owsley and Lee, and Campbell county, Tennessee, will respond in the same way the necessary stock can be raised within a few days.

We are taking no risk in this matter, as they propose to give a bond for the money we place in their hands, and if we get the road we will have stock in it to the amount we subscribe; if we don't get the road we will get our money back.

Now let's push this matter to a finish, and soon we will see work under way constructing this road, which will prove the greatest benefit to the mountains of Southeastern Kentucky of anything that has ever yet been done.

Now for a strong pull and a pull altogether and the thing is accomplished.

Don't wait for the fever to die down if you do it will be harder than ever to start it again, and besides, this proposition may not stand open long, as capital is always seeking investment, and delay might cause us to fail to secure necessary finance to construct the road. Act now while the opportunity is ripe.

Killed by Train.

Frank Mays was run down and killed by a train on the L. & N. road near the foot of Knox street at an early hour Monday morning at exactly the same place James Cox was killed a few weeks ago.

Mays was walking on the track in an intoxicated condition and was struck and knocked off. He was later found in an unconscious condition and died the same day.

Mays was a cousin to James Cox, the man killed a few weeks ago, and both were drunk when killed.

There is no excuse for either of them being on the track at that particular place, and the accident was entirely due to their own negligence.

IN MEMORIAM.

[OF ERLE TINSLEY FAULKNER.]

He's gone and we miss him, no more will the sound
Of his dear little feet be heard on the ground,
And morning and evening as the days come and go,
We listen in vain for his step on the floor.
He's gone and no more will our bright, happy boy
Fill the old house with gladness and joy;
And never again will his sweet voice be heard
That blended so well with the song of the birds.

Yes, we miss him, our boy that to us was so dear;
For like the sunshine he seemed to be everywhere;
He found the first violets that bloomed in the spring,
And knew the birds that came to their old haunts to sing.

His life was so short, yet each way that we turn,
We see something his sweet busy fingers have done;
But never again through the bright summer hours,
Will his hands train the vines or gather the flowers.

His school-books his bright eager eyes have perused,
Are filed away on the shelves never more to be used;
And his clothes we touch gently and fold away with our tears,
Never more to be worn through all the long years.

One long weary year, with its shadows have passed,
Since we looked on the face of our sweet darling last,
In our sad hearts that mourn for him still
There is void no earthly joy can fill.

He's gone and we miss him, oh, sad was the day,
That God in his mercy didst take him away;

To wait his pure spirit in peace to the skies,
To swell the glad chorus of angels on high.
Thou alone blessed father in thy home above
Canst fathom the depths of a mother's love;

Thou alone canst the healing balm impart,
That brings peace to the wounded broken heart.
Farewell, then, dear lost one thou'rt gone from us here,
But we know we'll soon meet thee in glory up there;

Where Jesus himself wipes away all our tears,
And together we'll praise him thro' eternity's years.
--MOTHER.

NOTICE.

The legal voters of precinct No. 3, of Knox County, will take notice that an election will be held in said precinct at the regular election on November 7, 1905, for the purpose of ascertaining the will of the legal voters of said precinct upon the question whether or not they wish such as cattle, horses, mules, sheep and hogs to run at large in said precinct.

Given under my hand as Sheriff of Knox County, this Sept. 19, 1905. 9 22-4t. W. W. BYRLEY, S. K. C.

How to Vote at the Coming November Election.

VOTED.

Every voter in Knox county who presents himself at the polls on November 7th will be presented with a ballot with the Log Cabin printed thereon, and the circle under it is for him to stamp as shown in voted cut. It will have the circle without the X, and all that is necessary to vote the entire Republican ticket is to stamp the X as shown in the cut above. Then vote YES for the Court-house bonds and fold the ballot and give it to the officer to deposit in the ballot-box and your work is done. You can pass out and give your space to some other man to go and do likewise.

Promoted.

Mr. J. H. Gallagher, who has served for the past four years as chief clerk in the general passenger office in charge of advertising for the Louisville, Henderson & St. Louis Railway Company, has succeeded Mr. George L. Garrett as traveling passenger agent, Mr. Garrett having resigned to enter other business.

Mr. Gallagher is a very polite and accommodating young man, and the fact that he has held a responsible position with his company for the four years past, and is now promoted only shows the esteem in which he is held by those who know him best.

Those who desire to travel over the "Henderson Route" will find it to their interest to write a letter to Mr. J. H. Gallagher at Louisville and they will receive every attention it is possible for him to show them.

DO YOU SEE?

How can you spend these long evenings without having a good light by which you can keep posted as to the happenings throughout the country. You cannot enjoy your reading by a kerosene lamp or tallow candle, but if you have one of those 16 candle power Shelby electric globes you can see to read in any part of the room and your eyes will not tire and pain you. They are a great luxury and no home in our town should be without the electric light service. The new management has overhauled the plant and it now gives entire satisfaction to all who are using the service. Try it, and you would not again be without it.

STRUNG UP

Virgil Bowers, Negro Murderer of George Farris, Lynched by Laurel County Mob.

At an early hour Tuesday morning a masked and armed mob of Laurel county men, at the point of guns, overcame the guards at the Laurel county jail at London and took Virgil Bowers, the self-confessed murderer of George Farris. Proceeding a short distance out of London on the Barbourville road the negro was strung to an apple tree. So quietly was the work done that few knew of the deed outside the members of the mob until daylight, when the dead body of Bowers was discovered by a hotel porter.

The lynching, the first that has occurred in that county for over forty years, has created great excitement. Last Monday large crowds from the surrounding country flocked into London. Monday evening a mass meeting was held, participated in by a large number of representative citizens, condemning the summary proceedings of the mob.

Efforts will be made to apprehend the members of the lynching party, it is said.

The murder of Farris, who was a wealthy lumberman of Grays, this county, occurred at the London fair, and for a time there was talk of mobbing Bowers. He received two trials, the last time receiving a life sentence. It said that arrangements had been made for taking an appeal.
